

GRAVEYARD DIRT CAKE

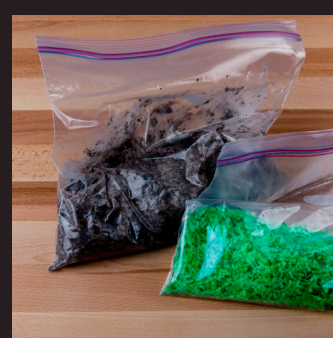

1. Gather your ingredients: coconut shavings, food dye, chocolate cookies, butter, cream cheese, powdered sugar, vanilla instant pudding, milk, Cool Whip, gravestone-shaped cookies, chocolate frosting and a casserole dish.

2. Put the coconut into a plastic bag. Dissolve a few drops of green food coloring in a teaspoon of water, then pour the colored water over the coconut inside the bag. Seal the bag and shake until all the coconut has entirely turned green.

3. Put two packages of chocolate cookies into a plastic bag, then seal the bag.

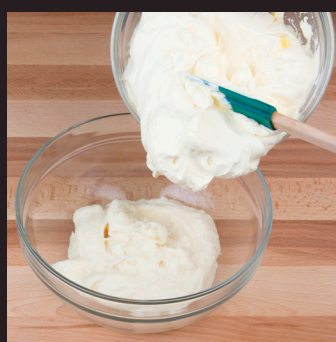

4. Gently crumble the chocolate cookies into "gravel" sized chunks.

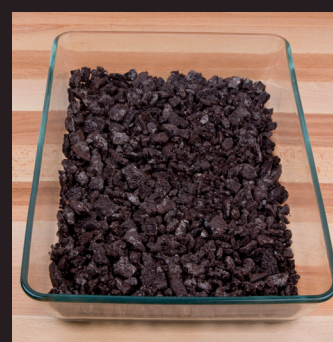

5. In a bowl, mix 1/3 cup of butter, 8 ounces of cream cheese, and 1 cup of powdered sugar.

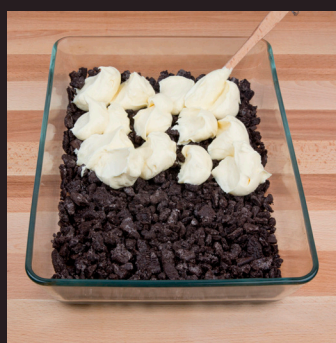

6. In a separate bowl, whisk the 2 packages of vanilla instant pudding, 3.5 cups of milk and an 8 ounce container of Cool Whip.

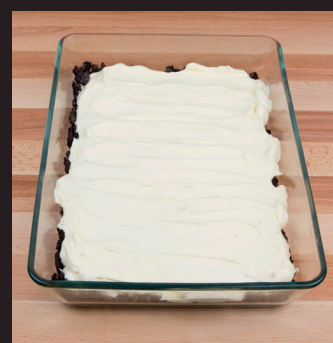

7. Add the two mixtures together and stir until it has been fully blended together.

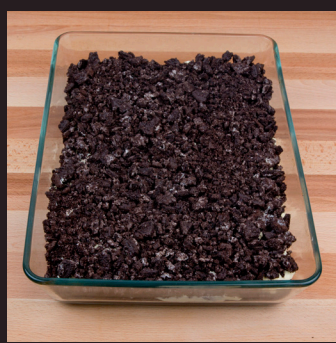

8. Cover the bottom of a casserole dish entirely in the crushed chocolate cookie "gravel."

9. Spoon dollops of the pudding mixture on top of the crushed chocolate cookies in rows.

10. Spread the dollops until another layer has been formed.

11. Add another layer of crushed chocolate cookies.

12. Arrange the green coconut flake "grass" around the crushed cookie gravel to create fresh gravesites.

13. Using chocolate frosting, spell out "RIP" onto the gravestone-shaped cookies. Insert the cookie "headstones" at the top of each of your gravesites by pushing them down into the layer cake.

14. Dig into your graveyard dirt cake with a shovel or a spoon! #HalloweenHills
